

Welcome to Sabiyatanr Panchayat (Rajauli Block, Nawada)

These villages lie in the mica-affected hilly belt. Communities face limited livelihood options, migration, and lack of higher schooling.

Villages to be Visited

- Lat (Phaguni, Tithiya, Toppapahadi)
- Simaratari (Gosaintari)
- Saphi (Pelmo)

Population Overview

Phaguni Village (Lat Cluster) Intervention Snapshot

KEY COMMUNITY STRUCTURES & SOCIAL PROTECTION WORK

BALWADI — Early Childhood Learning Support

The Lat Cluster Balwadi provides early childhood education to young children (4 to 6 years), ensuring that every child in the community receives age-appropriate learning opportunities from the earliest years.

Total Enrollment: 33

14  19

VILLAGE DEVELOPMENT COMMITTEE (VDC) — PHAGUNI

Major Decisions

-  PRA & Resource Mapping
-  Asset Support Beneficiary Selected
-  Kitchen Garden Beneficiary Chosen
-  Balwadi Space & Tutor Monitoring

The VDC is a community group that plans village activities, involves women and vulnerable families, and regularly reviews progress to guide local development.

Asset Support Beneficiary

-  Beneficiary: Yoshada Devi
-  Asset Provided: Chicken Shop
-  Income: ₹3,000 per month

-  Why She Was Selected
 - Widow
 - No alternative source of income
 - Children are dependent

Jan Suvidha Kendra

Achievements

 Linkages : 12

Mapping for each Households completed

The Jan Suvidha Kendra provides villagers easy access to government services and certificates, helping them complete essential linkages quickly and efficiently at the village level.

Simratari Village (Gosaintari) Intervention Snapshot

COMMUNITY LEARNING & HEALTH INTERVENTIONS

DISCOVER IMPACTFUL COMMUNITY-DRIVEN PROJECTS AIMED AT IMPROVING EDUCATION AND RESOURCES IN SIMRATARI.

The Community Library provides accessible resources and fosters a love for reading among all ages.

80% children are attending the community library regularly.

Scholarship Support offers financial assistance to deserving students, ensuring equal educational opportunities.

AWC Modelling enhances community engagement through workshops and training, promoting sustainable practices and local involvement.

Number of Children Enrolled: 40
Last Month ANC: 7
Last Month PNC: 9

Saphi Village (Pelmo) Intervention Snapshot

COMMUNITY LINKAGES & HEALTH INTERVENTIONS

75%

75% increase in adolscent engagement observed during MHM discussions, highlighting the importance of local participation in health initiatives.

295

295 girls received training on menstrual hygiene and management.

Topics

Safe hygiene practices, disposal, privacy, myths & taboos

Digital Service Within Panchayat

Additionally, the Jan Suvidha Kiosk has proven successful in delivering essential services efficiently. With new initiatives and positive feedback, it reflects the community's growing trust and satisfaction in local health resources, ultimately fostering a healthier environment.

40%

40% reduction in service delivery time

50

50 applications received and processed